

Low Cost Home Furniture

There are two ways you can be economical in buying furniture.

First, in the matter of price. On the Furniture we sell you, the price has been brought to the lowest figure consistent with the quality.

Second, there is the consideration of durability. The longer Furniture is useful, the greater the bargain.

We can show you this week some unusual values from which to choose.

Your Ice Box Problem

An Ice Box should be constructed as carefully as a piano. On its design and building depends your good health. Those you buy here are the utmost in ice saving and serviceable qualities. A good Ice Box will last several years. Ours do. If you require a new one, let us show you the best in the city for the price.

See the Four-Passenger Lawn Swing that we are selling for $8.75.

More Vidor Porch Shades on the way, due in a few days.

J. J. Dashner has returned from St. Johns, P. Q., where he went recently on a business trip. The return was made by automobile by way of the islands in Lake Champlain and Burlington, a trip of some 300 miles.

Velo Venetti of Quincy, Mass., is visiting with relatives on Center street for a few days. Mr. Venetti will return the latter part of the week, going by way of Woodsville, N. H., where he will visit with friends for a few days.

Frank Smith of White River Junction arrived in the city yesterday and is visiting with relatives on Seminary street for a few days, while en route for Whitefield, N. H., where he will be employed in a hotel during the summer season.

County Agent F. H. Abbott returned yesterday morning from Cabot, where he attended a committee meeting Monday night. The meeting was held in order that the Cabot farmers might organize a club and attend to other business proceedings which might arise. Mr. Abbott reports that farmers of Cabot are very enthusiastic over the club and have already made long strides toward its success.

Tufts Nime received a post card from F. Tomasi, a member of Company H of Montpelier, telling of the excessive heat the Vermont boys are having to endure at Eagle Pass, Texas. When Mr. Tomasi wrote the card, he was sitting in his tent with the mercury hovering around 120 degrees, with no indication of its being any cooler in the near future. He says that all of the boys are standing the heat very well, and no cases of sickness have developed as yet.

Tuesday visitors in Barre were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cutsall of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lehr, Miss Elizabeth Lehr, Horace Lehr, Jr., and W. E. Howell of Easton, Pa., Mrs. W. H. Anderson and Miss Belle Anderson of Waterbury, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dalrymple of Boston, John A. Cross, M. W. Cross, Claude A. Cotpin and Burr Morse of Northfield, Mrs. A. A. Davis of Morristown, N. J., and H. P. Oliver and Charles Farnham of St. Johnsbury.

Harry Jeffords of 1 Bemis place has in his possession a file of The Vermont Watchman which is complete from March 23, 1824, to Nov. 28, 1829, inclusive. The Watchman was published in Montpelier by E. P. Walton, who later on co-operated with his sons in the publication of The Daily Journal. Mr. Jeffords also had a copy of The Watchman for Dec. 3, 1808, which he recently presented to the State Historical society at Montpelier. These papers furnish an interesting sidelight on early 19th century history in this country, and also on the journalistic methods of the day, lack of space requiring clever condensation of news stories that would to-day be given many times the space then allotted them.

To Keep Things Moving Fast!

It is our constant study to know just what to do to keep things moving fast and in such order that it will keep our stock clean, so we can give you the new goods as you want them.

It is our constant aim and earnest study to close out all stock before it becomes old and shopworn, so that you will be able to get the season's best values at all times.

The new things we are offering in Wash Goods and the values in the Ready-Made Department will be sure to appeal to you as just the thing you will want for your present time of need.

New Things for Summer Skirts

We have a large showing of new materials for Separate Skirts and Cool Dresses, and these are in the new combinations of colors and in good qualities.

One lot of Awning Striped Materials which we have just received. Are extra good values at only 25c per yard. They come in all the popular combination Stripes and in the season's best colorings.

One lot of Awning Striped Crepes that come 27 inches wide and in a good combination of colors. The price is only 18c per yard.

In the Thin Wash Goods we have a large showing of the season's best and most popular materials, cloths that are the season's best.

One lot of the season's most popular Linen values. Linens that come 45 inches wide and sell for only 75c per yard. These come in all the popular colors, such as Lavender, Tan, Pink, Brown, Blue, Green and White.

Ladies' Thin Dresses

We have one lot of odd Dresses that we are putting prices on to clean them up at once. These are Dresses that are made from thin Voiles and Muslins, in Whites and Colors. Are Dresses that sold at from $4.50 to $6.50 and are good value at that price. These go into one lot at the small price of only $1.98 each. If you want a Thin Dress for the warm days, you should see these values.

We have some fine quality Linen Dresses that are made in the season's best styles and at the season's popular prices.

We have a few Silk Dress values that we are putting out at one-fourth off from the regular price. These are good Dress values that are made from a fine quality Chiffon Taffeta. Are in the season's best styles.

Ladies' House Dresses

We have some unusual values in House Dresses that we are sure will interest any who want a good fitting, well-made House Dress. These are the Good Service House Dresses, and those who have had these Dresses know what the quality and fit are.

If you want a good House Dress, see these values. We show them in qualities at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00, and the qualities and colors are right.

Children's Wash Dresses

We are putting out an extra value in Children's Wash Dresses, mostly in the Fast Colored Gingham.

At 69c each are a lot of fine quality Fast-Colored Gingham Dresses. These are made in a variety of the best styles. Are Dresses that are worth $1.00 each. To clean up this odd lot now only 69c each.

At $1.00 each are a lot of Gingham Dresses in the season's best styles and from a fine quality Gingham.

The demand for Separate Waists has been so great that we were compelled to have many of our lines delivered at once, so that now we have a large showing of the new models.

Miss Bessie Carrigan, a trained nurse of the Audubon sanatorium of New York City, was in the city to-day on her way to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carrigan of Washington.

The case of State vs. Mrs. Mabel Bruce of Depot square, charged with keeping a disorderly house following a visit to her apartment by the police, was to-day continued in Barre city court to some date yet to be determined, the same to be dependent upon the ability of the man chosen by the woman to defend her to be present in court.

Frank A. Shields, who is listed as an "old offender," was sentenced in Barre court this morning to spend 30 days in Washington county jail, the man having pleaded guilty to a subsequent offense of intoxication. He was arrested by Chief Sinclair. The 30 days of this sentence will not be the limit of Shields' stay in the county jail because the mistake was made at the jail to let Shields out 20 days ahead of the expiration of his sentence which started May 11. So the 20 days of that sentence will be added to the 30 days of to-day's court order.

Notice to Public.

I wish to notify the public of Barre and vicinity that I have moved my shoe business from the basement of the A. Tomasi block to 2 Merchant street. Here I am better prepared than ever with the latest machinery to do all kinds of shoe and rubber repairing, also hand-made shoes. I have also a good line of shoes and polishes. I wish to thank all those who have given me their patronage, and in my new quarters I will welcome both old and new customers. All work guaranteed. Alexander Bissett, shoemaker, 2 Merchant street, Barre.
